Name _____

Week of _____

Directions: Your homework is to read for a minimum of 20 minutes each night. In the left-hand column, write down quotations from your text that you have questions about, that you are confused by, or that make you think about something. In the center column, make sure to include the page number for the quotation. In the right-hand column, write your questions or thoughts about the quotations you chose. Finally, make sure to include the title of your text, the number of pages you read, the number of minutes you read, and your parent's or guardian's initials signifying that they know you read.
